

SEA WORLD ORLANDO

I moved to Florida in late October 2015 from the Philadelphia region and soon began part-time work at SeaWorld. I considered this period a working sabbatical for me -- a time of enjoyable rejuvenation at this juncture of my career.

- Benjamin Franklin similarly described his midlife sabbatical “...for Philosophical Studies and Amusements.”

Oct 2015 – May 2017

During my employment at SeaWorld Orlando, I had an excellent attendance record, been a positive influence with my skills and attitude, and proficiently carried out all assigned duties. I had contributed to the team and attended regular Ambassador Communication Meetings.

Based on my professional experience, I had also given a written proposal to enhance the training and company culture through eLearnings.
