To Whom It May Concern

Clint Dantine aka Colonel C worked alongside WMGK-FM 102.9 "The Seventies Station" air-talent Mike Bowe for the live Saturday night party at Instant Replay, a nightclub within the Maui complex at 1000 N Delaware Ave Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Maui (holdings DelawareCo, Inc) is considered Philadelphia's most popular entertainment complex hosting several specialty themed dance clubs and bars with an adjacent outdoor venue at the pier on the Delaware River.

During the 1995 broadcast year, Clint operated the club's extraordinary light show - reminiscent of the discotheque era under the supervision of club production director Mark Appet. The instrument panel manually controlled the lighted dance floor, beacons, strobes, and dozens of assorted lights for an otherworldly visual experience.

Clint assisted Mike Bowe within the club's DJ booth for the live broadcast. Clint had also shadowed employee Mark Fogel at the air studios of WMGK/WPEN periodically.
