

I moved to Florida in late October 2015 from the Philadelphia region. It had always been on my career radar to work with Universal Studios. I first visited Universal Studios Hollywood as a young boy. Also as a youth, I was on the live set of Cannonball Run 2 while visiting Old Tucson Studios.

Prior to work at Universal Orlando Resort, I had been the Executive Producer for Mount Pleasant Films (see job Brandywine School District ¹⁹⁹³⁻²⁰¹⁰).

I assisted with many projects at Universal Studios. In 2019, I helped with the "How to Train Your Dragon: The Hidden World" video booth in the park. For each session, I acted as Director while park guests were my Talent. I shot this with multiple cameras and green screen.

Clint Dantinne first visited Universal Studios Florida just 110 days after the park initially opened to the public.

While on the Walt Disney World College Program in 1990, I visited the new Universal Studios Florida theme park twice.
